CIVIL SUITS RETURNED

IN SUPERIOR COURT.
 Actions for the First Tuesday in June —$3,000 Damages Sought from Connecticut Company.

William H. Taylor of Norwich sues the Connecticut company for $3,000 damages, claiming that on July 9, 1909, while riding in a team belonging to Thomas H. Wilson and about to cross Central avenue at Fourth street, the electric sprinkler of the company because of negligence crashed into his team, throwing the plaintiff headlong into the street, causing the dislocation of his right thumb and many other bruises and injuries.

Louis Markoff and others have sued Joseph Swartzburg, Jr., and his wife Rosa for a mortgage note of $600, and Mrs. E. Olivia Tyler Olcott has also sued the same couple for a mortgage note of $1,200.

William Weiner and others of New London have entered suit against Leon Weiner and others of Montville for the proceeds of a mortgage note of the face value of $2,500.

N. Johnson company brings action against David B. Polisher and Frank E. Coxeter for $1,100 on a common count.

A. Doehner and others of New York, South Carolina and Maryland, have sued Herbert F. Dawley and others of Norwich for $1,500. The plaintiffs, who do business under the firm name of Descher, Gardner & Co., claim that on March 1, 1909, they shipped a cargo of lumber of various kinds to the defendants on the schooner Celia F., from Georgetown, S. C., and in the cargo were 101,333 feet of redwood. The defendants sold the redwood for not satisfactory and the plaintiffs said they would take the lumber back and they tried to do so, but the defendants used 29,787 feet of the lumber and the plaintiffs got only the balance. They sue for the rest of it.

Republicans Hold Enthusiastic Caucus

Albert S. Comstock Nominated for Mayor Amidst Loud Applause—Hopkins and Lerou for Aldermen—Harmonious Session of Representative Men.

With over 150 assembled in Town hall Tuesday evening, the republicans of the city held their caucus for the nomination of a city ticket for the next Monday. The session lasting about a half-hour and being harmonious and enthusiastic throughout. The gathering was representative of the prominent men of the city.

Mr. Browning proceeded to show the plan for the caucus for the city to be run on as the tax collector shows that since 1890 there has not been a tax so low except in 1904 when it was nine mills. (Applause.) The tax has been ten and according to the fire department figures as high as 15 mills have been recommended, that being in 1901. Following 1904 with a nine-mill tax, the next year showed 11 1-2 mills.
 Looking over the past two years the result is that there has been a fine administration. Now, said Mr. Browning, I am sorry to say that the man who has been there for two years, wants to resume his hours and more pay (laughter), as he is aspiring for higher honors (applause). Yes, that means we hope he will get there.

Albert S. Comstock Nominated.
 Upon calling for nominations for mayor, Col. C. W. Gale addressed the chair and stated that he proposed to name a man for mayor who can be elected next Monday and he stated that it gave him great satisfaction to recommend Albert S. Comstock. A warm opportunity allowed after the applause F. H. Smith seconded the nomination and Mr. Comstock was made the nominee.

Two Aldermen Named.
 For alderman Costello Lippitt stated that it gave him great pleasure to nominate a gentleman who has had experience for the past two years during which he served on two important committees, where he used fine judgment. He is a man well-known and esteemed. He named C.
 Leslie Hopkins, who was chosen by a large majority of the caucus.

HERBERT M. LEROU,
 Nominee for Alderman.
 Important committees, where he used
 known and esteemed. He named C.
 a large majority of the caucus.

Members of the Council.
 Charles S. Holbrook named Basil P. Bishop, Judge N. J. Ayling, nominated A. Charles Hatch, Michael Moore proposed Stephen H. Reeves and Charles S. Twist presented the name of John Heath and all were unanimously chosen.

Clerk and Treasurer.
 William A. Reed placed in nomination for city clerk, Judge N. J. Ayling, who was chosen by acclamation, while Judge Lucius Brown nominated Ira L. Peck for city treasurer, thus ending his election. Judge Brown said it gave him great pleasure to nominate his distinguished friend for the office. He has the distinction of vanquishing his foe and having no opposition to his election. Judge Brown said he has often run for office, but never met with that good fortune, and the reason that Mr. Peck is so popular is because he is very good, and he urged the caucus to mark his predilection that Mr. Peck will be unanimously elected.

Sheriffs and Water Commissioner.
 John H. Barnes nominated George O. Benson, and George H. Stanton named George W. House for city sheriffs, and they were chosen.

For water commissioner Lewis R.
 Chittenden and Amel A. Beckwith
 business man and one who has served on the board, and he was not opposed.
 The town committee was empowered to fill any vacancies occurring on the ticket, after which the caucus adjourned at 8:30 o'clock.

LIGHTNING CAUSED TROUBLE
AT ELECTRIC STATION.
 Came from Windham County and Blew Out Two Switches—Electricity Cut Off for an Hour.

The electric lighting station on North Main street was shut down for about an hour late Tuesday night as the result of lightning that came in from the Uncas Power company's high tension line about 5 o'clock and put out of commission two switches, one in each bank of transformers.
 Supt. W. F. Bogue got clean up as soon as possible and by 6 o'clock had the dynamo at the plant started up and furnishing power.

A jumper was put on one of the switches and about 8:30 o'clock the high tension current was again turned on, the station dynamo running with them for a short time.

The power line has now been extended above the Scotland dam to Rockville and it was from this end that the lightning came. The weather was clear in the city, and the men at the Scotland dam reported that there was no storm there and that the electrical discharge came from above them.

It was the third or fourth time lately that lightning has crippled things at the station. The powerful current gets by the arresters and goes into the switches, breaking the porcelain and putting out of commission two switches, cutting off the transformers.

DIDN'T KEEP UP.
 Bicyclists Say That Thomas Chase
 Was Not Lost by Them.

The party of boy bicyclists from Norwich who went to Hartford Sunday and returned Monday stated Tuesday evening that they wish it understood that Thomas C. Chase was not an invited member of their party and that they didn't leave him behind. Chase asked permission to go with the party, they said, and this was granted when he said he could keep up with them and had money enough to look after himself.

On leaving Hartford, Chase dropped behind, threatening to go back. Although they waited for him, he was soon out of sight. The boys state that Chase was not lost by any of them.

ments can be carried out, as the Sac-chem, West Main and Division street improvements, the macadamizing of Washington street and the sewers in Ripley place and Boswell avenue are all improvements.

Mr. Browning proceeded to show
 to be run on as the tax collector shows
